THE STORY

This is a story of industrial and emotional turmoil.

We take you to the Sleepite Pajama factory in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where the workers are involved in a dispute with the Management over pay scales. Unless 7 1/2 cents are added to the existing hourly rate, the union will be forced to take industrial action. Meanminded factory boss Myron Hasler has announced his intention of resisting any claim for an increase.

Caught on opposite sides of the conflict are Sid Sorokin, Factory Superintendent responsible for production targets and Babe Williams, Union Representative and Spokesman for its Grievance Committee. However their official activities do not prevent them from falling in love at the Factory's annual picnic.

Love it seems, flourishes in the Pajama business. Vernon Hines, the workaholic Time Study man is obsessively attracted to Gladys Hotchkiss, Hasler's Secretary and Book-keeper, while the President of the Union ("Prez" to his friends) fancies any of the factory girls he can get his hands on!

But the atmosphere is not sufficient to overcome the deteriorating Industrial Relations. Pay negotiations break down, Prez orders a 'Go-slow' and Sid is forced to fire Babe for sabotaging a machine. With the factory at a standstill, Hasler refusing to compromise, Babe giving him the 'cold shoulder' treatment and his job in danger, Sid decides to bypass normal procedures and sort things out on his own. How does he do it? Will all end happily? That's what we're here to find out. So sit back and enjoy not only the story, but the super songs as well, as we play - THE PAJAMA GAME.
